Dear Mr. Caldwell,

Fortunltely again I have an opportunity for relief at your ultimate discretion. My family and I are very grateful for the sentence reduction I have already received.

I've been incarcerated for seven (7) years and at the best case scenario I have another four (4) years until my release, which is definitely a far cry from where I began. However, with all due respect I don't need imprisonment [anymore].

In retrospect it is sad to say, but yes ! I needed imprisonment for it was the occassion of me earning my GED, successfully completing beneficial programs and most important developing a totally new mind set.

I'm ready to return to society, a human being and diligently employ everything I've learned in prison.

Very truly yours,

Travis Parker
